By consulting and using the Hareau Website, the user agrees to comply with the following terms and conditions.

1. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

The reproduction and/or representation and/or dissemination, even partial, of the Website or of any of the elements that comprise it without prior authorization from Hareau is prohibited and constitutes infringement within the meaning of Articles L. 335-2 et seq. of the French Intellectual Property Code.

Non-compliance with this prohibition constitutes an offense for which the infringer may be held civilly and criminally liable.

Hareau's domain names and trademarks are the exclusive property of Hareau. Any reproduction and/or use of these domain names, trademarks and logos, alone or combined, in any manner and for any reason is prohibited. Hyperlinks to the Website may be created only with prior authorization from Hareau.

2. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

In accordance with the regulations in force, Hareau has informed the French Data Protection Authority (CNIL) of the collection and processing of personal information via the Hareau Website, the URL of which is: <http://www.weenect.com>.

2.1 COLLECTION AND PROCESSING OF INFORMATION

Users of the Website may subscribe to the Hareau newsletter. The information collected at that time enables Hareau to send the newsletter to subscribers. This personal information is intended for the exclusive use of Hareau.

2.2 RIGHT OF ACCESS, CORRECTION AND DELETION

In accordance with Article 34 of the French Data Protection Act (Act 78-17) of January 6, 1978, users of the Website have a right of access, correction and/or deletion of information concerning them.

To exercise this right, they must contact Hareau using the Help center.

3. LIABILITY

Hareau declines all liability for problems encountered when accessing the Website or for any communication failure.

Hareau may not be held liable for damage or for a virus that may infect the user's computer or any computer equipment following use of or access to the Website or a download.
